

Early Years Practitioner

£10.65 – £11.98 per hour, depending on experience
30 – 37 hours per week (tbc), term time only plus inset days
1 year fixed term with potential to become permanent
Required for September 2018

We currently have a vacancy for a qualified Early Years Practitioner to join our thriving Foundation Stage team. We are looking for someone committed, enthusiastic and flexible to join a friendly and professional team. If you have a passion for working with children in the Early Years and want to work in a setting which celebrates cultural diversity, values community and strives to provide the very best opportunities for each and every child then Wilson Primary School could be the school for you.

You should have:

- good organisational skills, as well as flexibility and a sense of humour
- the ability to develop positive and caring relationships with children
- the ability to support a child with specific learning difficulties
- a positive person who can work as part of a dedicated team
- able to offer commitment to the life of our school community.

Prospective candidates are very welcome to visit the school to meet some of the staff and to look around, please contact the school to make an appointment.

Visits to the school are encouraged and welcomed.

Further information regarding this position can be found on the school website www.wilsonprimary.co.uk/vacancies.html

To apply, please download an application form from the website. Completed forms must be received by the closing date. Please do not send a CV. For the purposes of Equal Opportunities we can only accept Reading Borough Council application forms.

Closing date: 12 noon, 22 June 2018 • Interviews: 28 June 2018

The school is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people, and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. This position requires an enhanced DBS check. This post is exempt from section 4(2) of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974.
